September 22, 2004 CBS Evening News Report

Dan Rather: CBS News President Andrew Heyward today named an outside panel to investigate a 60 Minutes Wednesday report on President Bush's National Guard service. That report included documents CBS News has not been able to authenticate. On the panel are Dick Thornburgh, who served as Attorney General for Presidents Reagan and Bush 41, and Lou Boccardi, former President and CEO of The Associated Press. CBS News promised the panel full cooperation.
