

British Seize Computer

New York Times (1857-Current file); Dec 12, 1983; ProQuest Historical Newspapers The New York Times
pg. D2

British Seize Computer

LONDON, Dec. 11 (Reuters) — British authorities today seized American computer systems that they suspect were bound for Czechoslovakia, customs officials said. Six systems worth $750,000 were believed to have come from the United States under a license that banned their resale to any Communist country.

Reproduced with permission of the copyright owner. Further reproduction prohibited without permission.