With an Atari Communicator System, you can get all the fascinating and useful information listed on the screen above. Plus much more.

Just subscribe to any of the home information data bases available. Then, by simply hooking up the Atari to your TV and dialing your phone, you'll have the information on your screen.

And when you buy either the ATARI 400™ or ATARI 800™ Communicator System, we'll give you one free hour of home information service.

But the Atari Communicator is much more than an easy-to-use home information center. Both the 400 and 800 are also powerful personal computers.

Come see the Atari Communicator System. And feast your brain.
