

BIOGRAPHY

Dee Benson

PROFESSIONAL

- Federal District Judge in Utah, appointed by President Bush November, 1991
- Adjunct Professor at the Brigham Young University School of Law 1996 - present
- Adjunct Professor at the University of Utah Law School 1997 - present
- United States Attorney for Utah, March, 1989 - November 1991
- Associate Deputy Attorney General of the United States, Department of Justice, Washington, D.C., 1988-1989
- Served as Legal Counsel to the Iran-Contra Congressional Investigating Committee, 1987
- Served as Orrin Hatch's Chief of Staff 1986-1988
- Served two years as legal counsel to Senate Judiciary Committee, Washington, D.C. 1984-1986
- Formerly a partner in the Salt Lake City law firm of Snow, Christensen & Martineau 1976-1984

EDUCATION

- Graduate of Brigham Young University Law School, Charter Class, 1976; Editor of Brigham Young University Law Review
- Graduate of Brigham Young University, 1973

PERSONAL

- Born August 25, 1948; raised in Sandy, Utah; graduate of Jordan High School, 1966
- Four Children: Angie, Natalie, Luke and Katie
- Played professional soccer with the Utah Golden Spikers of the American Soccer League, Summer, 1976